BIO

Gene Galligan has a charisma that has endeared him to audiences of all ages for decades. He is a sought-after performer and accompanist for his broad repertoire, engaging manner, and accomplished keyboard skills. Gene performs as a solo artist, band member and guest artist in other ensembles. A versatile and talented musician, Gene has performed from intimate venues to large festivals, including Bethlehem MusikFest, the Philadelphia Folk Festival, Jamboree in the Hills, etc.

Gene’s music seamlessly encompasses many styles for many ages: Pop, Standards, Swing, Country, Folk, Rock, and Blues, Jazz and Gospel.

Gene’s Children’s Music and Musical Puppet shows delight and entertain young audiences. ‘Journey Down Memory Lane’ for Seniors brings smiles and laughter, and he is a frequent performer at many senior and assisted living facilities.

Gene’s musical career began playing with "The Bondsmen" in Durham, N.C. He was a member of Pennsylvania-based “The Johnston Brothers” (country / rock band) and has also worked and recorded with Scottish Fiddler Johnny Cunningham, among many others. Gene has recorded a number of albums: “Searching For A Different Melody” (Folk Rock and Country), “Unami” (Neo-Classical), “Kid’s Stuff” (Children’s Music), and most recently “Improvisation”, an instrumental piano recording.
