GENE

Gene Galligan has a charisma that has endeared him to audiences of all ages for decades. He is a sought-after performer and accompanist for his broad repertoire, engaging manner, and great keyboard and vocal skills. Gene performs as a solo artist, and as a band member and guest artist in other ensembles. A versatile and talented musician, Gene has performed in clubs, lounges, concert halls, and at many large festivals, including Bethlehem MusikFest, the Philadelphia Folk Festival, Jamboree in the Hills, etc.

Gene’s music seamlessly encompasses many styles for many ages: Pop, Standards, Swing, Country, Folk, Rock, and Blues, Jazz and Gospel.

Gene’s types of performances include:

- Children’s Music and Musical Puppet Shows that delight and entertain family audiences
- Journey Down Memory Lane performances for Senior and Assisted Living audiences that bring smiles and laughter
- Club & Pub music that brings a high energy style to places where folks gather to meet and have fun, and
- Dinner & Lounge music that brings an understated, and mostly instrumental, style to dining and private club spaces.

BIO

In addition to his ongoing career as a solo performer, Gene’s band work began with "The Bondsmen" in Durham, N.C. He was also a member of the "The Johnston Brothers" (country / rock band), and worked and recorded with Scottish Fiddler Johnny Cunningham, among many others. Gene has released a number of recordings: "Searching For A Different Melody" (Folk Rock and Country), "Unami" (Neo-Classical), "Kid’s Stuff" (Children’s Music), and most recently, "Improvisation" (Instrumental Piano).
